

Swans & Cygnets

Seas and Oceans

Watery Worlds

The Natural World (Understanding the World)

To be a Scientist I need to;

- explore the world, talking about animals and plants that live in different places
- talk about things that are the same and different in different places
- talk about changes in our seasons
- describe different types of weather
- talk about familiar lifecycles

I will;

- find out about different animals
- look really carefully when drawing
- spot patterns in the weather
- talk about weather and changes I can see through the year
- use books to find out about animals and know what is real and unreal
-

Important Science Words

animal	fish	bird	insect
features	grow	change	lifecycle
rain	wind	snow	sun
Spring	Summer	Autumn	Winter

Past and Present (Understanding the World)

To be a Historian I need to;

- know about important people
- know that some things are different now to in the past

I will;

- talk about what makes someone important
- describe things that are different in the past
- draw objects and people from the past
- ask questions about the past

Important History Words

past                      present                      important                      ago

Being Imaginative and Expressive (Expressive Arts and Design)

To be a Musician I need to;

- sing lots of different songs
- move in time with music

I will;

- listen and talk about songs
- talk about favourite songs
- listen for the beat
- move different parts of my body in time with the beat

Important Music Words

beat                      pulse                      high                      low fast                      slow                      loud                      quiet

People, Culture and Communities (Understanding the World)

To be a Geographer I need to;

- describe what it's like where I live
- know that there are different countries around the world
- know that oceans and seas separate continents
- know that some things are the same and some things are different in other countries

I will;

- draw pictures and talk about features of where I live
- talk about what I see in maps, pictures, videos and photos
- talk about differences and similarities
- use books and stories to talk about countries, thinking about what is real and what is unreal
- answer questions about places

Important Geography Words

UK	England	Europe	Africa
America	Asia	ocean	sea

To be a Computer expert I need to;

- create information in a simple way on a laptop or tablet, save it, find it and change it

I will;

- listen carefully and follow instructions
- put information onto a spreadsheet
- save my work independently
- talk about what information is showing me

Important Computing Words

spreadsheet	column	row	cell
copy	cut	paste	toolbox
open	save	edit	lock

Creating with Material (Expressive Arts and Design)

To be an Artist I need to;

- print, thinking about colour and pattern
- talk about my art work and explain how I made it
- use different tools safely

I will;

- try different ways to do things
- talk about the order I did things when making my art work
- create patterns
- listen carefully to how to use tools
- use tools with help

Important Art Words

pattern	repeated	press	original
---------	----------	-------	----------

How I can live in, and love God's amazing world;

- Find out about other places in the world and who lives there
- Find out about animals in our world
- Compare where I live with other places
- Think about the importance of water to people and animals
- Think about how I can help other people and animals around the world